CLAY COUNTY JAIL MUSEUM & HERITAGE CENTER

The Clay County Historical Society works to illustrate the development and hardships of life in Clay County in the late 1800s to the present. The extensive photo and archival collections attracts adults and children alike. In addition to all those intriguing facts, photos, and artifacts and displays, there is always a story. As visitors travel through this historic building, jail to drunk tank, sitting room to basement, the story finds a path to excite the memory of a time long past. Behind everything is pride in the heritage CCHS has managed to preserve, display and narrate for the education and entertainment of those who visit.

School

Lindsay ISD has achieved Exemplary School ratings for both campuses, with an emphasis on academics. Lindsay boasts an extensive curriculum and outstanding student performance. Lindsay ISD is involved in UIL and has won the state UIL Academic Championship 15 times, State OAP 6 times and Lonestar Cup 6 times.

Recreational Facilities

The City of Lindsay has excellent recreational facilities including a 14.5-acre park with shaded pavilion, picnic tables and playground area. A kitchen is available for large functions. The Park has a ½ mile walking path, lighted tennis court, sand volleyball court, softball-baseball field, 10 sets of legally sanctioned horseshoe pits and a full disc golf course which extends into the smaller park on Parkview Drive.

Entertainment and Media

Lindsay celebrates its German Heritage with Oktoberfest, held annually the first Sunday in October, as well as the Homecoming picnic held annually on the last Sunday in June. This brings the community together for food, frolic and fun. Lindsay has three restaurants serving Texas barbecue and steakhouse cuisine. They also serve hamburgers, steaks, pizza, and sandwiches.

Churches

Lindsay is proud of St. Peter's Church, a painted church, which is a Texas Historical site. The current structure was completed in 1918, after the original church was destroyed by a cyclone. An almost $5 million renovation was taken on by the parish in 2011-2012. The goal of the project was complete restoration of the original church. The church has many beautifully stylized painting and hand painted statues. The church is opened to visitors each day during daylight hours.

CACKLE & OINK BBQ

You just can't talk about Texas without talking about barbecue. It always tells such an interesting, amazing, and sometimes funny story. Cackle & Oink is a "hybrid" style of barbecue- a unique combination of Memphis, Texas and St. Louis. Aaron Vogel, known as "Big A," is the pitmaster. He has learned from several pitmasters from all over the country.
